9 October 2020

Fellow Pilgrim,

The Executive Committee of the Limpopo Synod of the Methodist Church of Southern Africa has the pleasure of inviting you to the Inaugural Rev Dr Stanley Mogoba Lecture.

The 2019 Synod Gathering took a resolution to honour and celebrate Rev Mogoba by introducing the Annual Lecture. The objectives of the Lecture are to:

- Preserve the legacy [thoughts and practice] of our elder
- Celebrate Pan Africanism in general and Africa Day in particular
- Mobilise against Xenophobia and other forms of discrimination
- Promote the healing and transformation of Africa

The Inaugural Lecture will be held as follows:

Date: Saturday 31 October 2020

Time:
- 12:00 Light Lunch
- 13:00 Registration a to allow proper COVID-19 Screening
- 14:00 Start of the Lecture

Venue: Westview Methodist Church

Livestream: Methodist Church of Southern Africa Facebook Page

Speaker: Rev Ivan Abrahams General Secretary of the World Methodist Conference.

The Task Team/Organising Committee will ensure full compliance with the governments’ COVID-19 regulations on Religious Gatherings. There will be registration of attendants, controlled numbers in the venue, physical distancing, wearing of masks and hand sanitising.

Kindly help us manage numbers by confirming attendance or non-attendance with Ms Bonolo Namane at bonolobb2@gmail.com or at 081 389 6930 by Monday 19 October 2020. Kindly do not share the invite.

With you in Christ’s Service,

R Sidwell Mokgothu
